LIKE ROSES

Dreams, see them grow like roses

So warm, so bright, they paint the night like roses

My heart was numb and cold and you turned it to fire

Every joy you inspire makes our garden of love grow so much higher

Dreams, like a flame inside us

How they light up our eyes and they guide us

And suddenly today you've grown into a woman

So young, gay with magic songs to sing

And your childhood is mine

You brought another spring to me

Now nothing more can shake me

No wind, no rain, no storm could ever break me

I'm flowing in your arms, the gentle waves caress me

Possesses me, softly bless me

Dreams, thanks to you they've found us

The sky was never quite so clear around us

I want to lay my life before you

Each moment of my life so gently at your feet

Scattered like roses, like summer roses
