Do you remember
When our lives were so complete
Long cold Decembers
So bitter sweet
But if I could set aside one day
That I could hold forever
I would save
The day that I met you
Is it still magic
Although we've grown worlds apart
It seems so tragic
So frail the heart
But If I was blessed with just one wish
To take me through my lonely life
I'd wish to go back to
The day that I met you
And when you feel you're on your own
Well, just believe you're not alone
And you'll feel the warmth
That we shared years ago
Don't be blue...oooooooo

One painful morning
I stared straight into the sun
It overwhelmed me
I came undone
So if you can find it in your heart
To be forgiving to a broken man
We'll go back to
The day that I met you
But if I was blessed with just one wish
To take me through my lonely life
I'd wish to go back to
The day that I met you....ooooooooo
