There was nothing to say
When you pulled her into your arms
Having me watch, wasn't easy
I held my love in deeply
All i could be was just your friend

Then before i knew it
I was watching you love
Someone else that really was a good friend too

CHORUS

Watching you love someone else
Really hurts my love
You don't even know how I feel
The rain will never stop falling
Drifting away like I am feeling

Oh, yea my love

Just like a flash I became your best friend
You found out that the one you really love
She didn't love you at all

CHORUS

Watching you love someone else
Really hurts my love
You don't even know how I feel
The rain will never stop falling
Drifting away like I am feeling

I told you so many things
You wouldn't probly wouldn't understand
I tried to tell you
You knew how i felt

CHORUS

Watching you love someone else
Really hurts my love
You don't even know how I feel
The rain will never stop falling
Drifting away like I am feeling

watching the one I love, love someone else
