The feeling so deep
The love is so true
Tell me baby why she's the one with you
I cry myself to sleep at night
Thinking I am a fool
For falling so deep in love
A love I thought was true

No more will I sit around
No more will I cry
No more will you come around
Telling me your lies

No more will I wait for you
No more will I try
No more will I say I love you
Telling you goodbye
No more

You're calling her your baby
What am I supposed to do
Just sit around and wonder why
I can't be with you
The games I can't take no more
The lies I can't undo
Go back to that other girl
'Cause I know I'm better than you

No more will I sit around
No more will I cry
No more will you come around
Telling me your lies

No more will I wait for you
No more will I try
No more will I say I love you
I'm telling you goodbye

I've been the girl on the other side
You say you'd give us a try
Tell me what would you do if you were me

No more will I sit around
No more will I cry
No more will you come around
Telling me your lies

No more will I wait for you
No more will I try
No more will I say I love you
Telling you goodbye

No more will I sit around
No more will I cry
No more will you come around
Telling me your lies

No more will I wait for you
No more will I try
No more will I say I love you
Telling you goodbye

No more will I sit around
No more will I cry
No more will you come around
Telling me your lies

No more will I wait for you
No more will I try
No more will I say I love you
