Situation could be much better
Much better than today
You know that you could do much better
Much better than you do today

But how come you
Never try to change situations?
How come you always escape
Out of a serious conversation?

Don't you know it can't never be too late
For us to succeed?
Out of every misery you can be released
As long as you believe

Help is coming as long as you believe
Help is coming for us to be relieved
For us to be relieved

Your lifestyle could be so different
From how it is right now
You know that you could change so many things
If only you would now

You should know it can never be too late
Just get up and try
And if you fall and wonder why
Just try another time but don't give up the fight

Help is coming as long as you believe
Help is coming for us to be relieved
For us to be relieved

Help is coming as long as you believe
Help is coming for us to be relieved
For us to be relieved

You're always looking for a scapegoat
Like everything is their fault
And never ever you gon' say
Maybe I did mistakes

You're acting up like a wise guy
Never you gon' say why
Like you know everything
And what they say just can't be right

How come you never change?
How come you always fail
In everything you did before
Back then until today?

Help is coming as long as you believe
Help is coming for us to be relieved
For us to be relieved

Help is coming as long as you believe
Help is coming for us to be relieved
For us to be relieved
