We all make mistakes.
Everybody fails once in a while
We lie, I've lied quite a few times Everybody breaks a heart and everybody's heart gets broken
You never know how I was hurt, now my pain is your concern
Now you know there's nothing worse

Please believe me when I say,
Please believe me when I say,
Please believe me when I say,
I'm sorry
Please believe me when I say,
Please believe me when I say,
Please believe me when I say,
I'm sorry

In the deepest corner of my dark mind, you won't find no answer
But you will see the light, and in our touch we'll find the truth
That's when we'll know we don't need proof, but all our pain turned into dust
That makes it hard to breathe, then makes it hard to trust

Please believe me when I say,
Please believe me when I say,
Please believe me when I say,
I'm sorry
Please believe me when I say,
Please believe me when I say,
Please believe me when I say,
I'm sorry
