(Background)

Conflict. Conflict, Con-
Distrust, conflict, conflict, it's disgusting.

(Main Vocal)

You've told me right,
You've told me wrong,
You've told me...
You'll always be stong,
You lead the way,
You show me fear and guilt now...
Once was a fear of someone making hurt now,
I knew I was too young to understand,
I never knew what to believe...

I feel so deceived!
Confusion in my head,
Don't understand all that you're saying,
And now I see the light, it's time for me to realize,
But how can I reveal these messages that you keep breathing,

....
....

You've told me right,
You've told me wrong,
You've told me...
You'll always be strong,
You lead the way,
You show me fear and guilt now...
Once was a fear of making someone hurt now,
I knew I was too young to understand,
I never knew what to believe...

I feel so deceived!
