o.k. sea food
let me ask you something what exactly ties you to my friend think of yourself and get a crush on me let's spend the weekend together love is a story out of gossip magazines love is a miles miles away from us when you provoke me i find that you like me but don't think there's anything between us just remember a single rule i'm not sure about anything except that i'm good at fooling you i'm offering you silly shocks imbecilic parties i'm offering you lots of dirty city streets i'm offering you boredom petting and disco music

but it doesn't matter it could be worse
