pretty women passing through town i'm standing on the corner all alone they pass by and look at me long time since i've seen herds of such pretty women
there's no doubt there're as gorgeous as in dreams i look up and there's maya sh*t she wants me to nibble on her feet she'd really like to knock me up forget it honey look at that herd of pretty women
there's no doubt
they're as gorgeous as in dreams duda duda duda why don't you call me duda duda duda where'd you lose my number duda duda duda go and shove it if you call me i'll be yours if you call me

if you call me
i'll be yours
only yours
