am i lying when i say happiness lies in three things a good woman a guitar and rich daddy who's always very busy so if you're dreaming of this kind of luck play roulette dice or cards or sell everything except your strummer and go on the other way
my boy
on the other way
my boy

all your days are wasted on brandy tv and porno pictures you don't have a woman and she'll be hard to get with such an old mother around love is what you die for love is hard to reach in the zoo so sell everything except your strummer
my boy
on the other way
my boy

you want to be like those bearded and strong guys raising havoc in a dive and you'd want them to hand you a smoke and a drink and all that glory around you'd get a bruise under your eye and scream slogans that sound great you'd be a beatnik and a real anarchist and that's why you should go the other way
my boy
you should go the other way
my boy
