Well, There's a state out west,
They call her California.
If ya haven't been there before
I think I'd better warn ya.
The sun shines strong
And the fun never ends.
So if your packin' your bags
Say good by to your freinds.
If you want the best head west to California.

CHORUS:

Take me there: to California.
Take me where: the sun shines strong,
The nights are long.
You can't do wrong by goin' to California.

Well you heard about the east side of the nation.
They're all headin' west to feel those good vibrations.
Come on, take a ride, put your foot to the floor.
Get on and leave your dreams on a six foot board.
If you want the best head west to California.

CHORUS:

Take me there: to California.
Take me where: the sun shines strong,
The nights are long.
You can't do wrong by goin' to California.

Califonia's got it, whoo they really got it.
Califonia's got it, whoo they really got it.
