"Alive"

I, I missed the meeting
Where you were appointed god
Preaching all your misguided views
Only you decide what is true
You just want me to die
Then you'll be satisfied
It's a disappointing day for you
Because I am alive... alive...
Me, I'm only human
So you think you can step on me
Feeding on all of those around
From your nothing throne
You're ruling nothing now
You just want me to die
Then you'll be satisfied
It's a disappointing day for you
Because I am alive... alive...
If you knew anything about real life
Then you would realise
You don't know anything about real life
To me that's no surprise
I, I missed the meeting
Where you were appointed god
Preaching all your misguided views
Only you decide what is true
You just want me to die
Then you'll be satisfied
It's a disappointing day for you
You know I'm still alive... alive...
You know I'm still alive... alive...
