Having a dream I'm born into the earth
Taking the time it turns into reality

Try to understand what are you living for
There is no end of my burning desire

I see the sign where the rainbow's rising
I hear the call of brave and mighty voices

Run as fast as you can till the end of the line
I want to see what is waiting for

[Chorus:]

Like the wind my spirits will fly (fly in the air)
Like the wind my spirits will rise (fly in the air)
I don't lose my time oh anymore
Like the wind my spirits will fly (fly in the air)
Like the wind my spirits will rise
Sunrise in the dreamland

Now it is time to leave
'Cause I must give my life
Destiny is calling my name...

[Repeat chorus]

My dream will never die...
