Verse 1:

In a world full of bottled up pain, hurt and sorrow
Six people out of ten won't want to wake up tomorrow When thirty thousand children won't live through tomorrow Malnourished and starved, stomachs empty and hollow
While the rest of us take every meal, breath and step for granted
Forgettin' life was a gift in us a seed was planted We've lost ourselves to this world, with it became enchanted
Our hearts were fertile soil but now they're rock harder than granite
On this populated planet one man will kill another man
To prove what he calls manhood but really it's insanity
Can it be that all this pain, hurt and calamity
Is the derivative of sin committed by Adam and Eve It gets worse, year after year statistics prove That over 900, 000 kids suffer abuse
And that's just in America, land of the free Home of the brave where 34 percent of children can say
They have to face life without their biological father
So basketball and rap stars become their role models
And now they're supposed to choose right over wrong When all their role model talks about is murder in his songs
It's a known fact, this world is oh so cold
You could search your whole life across the whole entire globe
Just remember the prophesy from ages ago
"What prophet a man to gain the world yet forfeit his soul"

Chorus:

It's a cold cold world
Don't lose yourself in it

Verse 2:

Ladies and gentlemen, let me just tell you A little somethin' that I think you could benefit from

When I was young I would pretend I was dumb and not raise my hand
So I didn't come across as an intelligent one 'Cause back then it wasn't cool to be smart If you cared about school somehow that made you a loser at heart
It was a lie spread by kids that were too lazy to study
I was a fool to believe and let 'em shape me like puddy Ain't even funny, time starts flyin' so fast Somebody kicked it into fifth gear and stepped on the gas
Old age will creep up like a snake in the grass
Before you know it, you're dead lyin' in a casket Everything we lived for didn't mean a thing 'Cause this cold world is temporary life in vane So I search for what's eternal submerge myself in the truth
Lord the only way to stay warm in this cold world is you

Chorus

Bridge:

Don't let this world grab a hold of you, take you in and mold you into somethin' you don't want to be 'Cause when it's all said and done then, you can't turn around and change a single thing

Chorus
