I have the same old blues, every night and every day
I have the same old blues, every night and every day Yes, I need somebody, to help me to try to keep the blues away

I wake up every morning, with the same thing on my mind
I wake up every morning, with the same thing on my mind
Yes, I need somebody, who can love me all the time

The blues seems to follow me, every where I go
The blues seems to follow me, every where I go Well, I have someone to love me, I won't be blues anymore
