"More Than a Law"

I've seen that recipe, oh yeah
Lawmen and royalty
And nothing on earth can take that taste
And make it something sweet

I saw the news today, oh yeah
A broken everything with years to pay
But nobody else can save us now
And that's alright by me 'cause I say

We make love in the face of it all
Feel the freedom and the purity
And what we need is not security
Something more than a law

We walk at night in a blind wind
Through the streets where the rich ones lived
And what we want's beyond the will to win
Something more than a law

I feel the rain on me
And I'm soaked in memory
And never will I betray that love
'Cause that's not love by me

I know prosperity, oh yeah
But he could never be a part of me
The snow and the stone feeling never at home
Well, she's my poetry 'cause I say

We make love in the face of it all
Feel the freedom and the purity
And what we need is not security
Something more than a law

We walk at night in a blind wind
Through the streets where the rich ones lived
And what we want's beyond the will to win
It's something more than a law

And when we're lonely, it's more than lonely
So we turn around to say something bigger than us

But then who do you blame when your love is gone?

Singing, we make love in the face of it all
Feel the freedom and the purity
And what we need is not security
Something more than a law

We walk at night in a blind wind
Through the streets where the rich ones lived
And what we want's beyond the will to win
Something more than a law

We make love in the face of it all
Feel the freedom and the purity
And what we need is not security
