Out on the corner with cast iron blood
10,000 or more with hearts on the run
The say i might die and I may be cold
I may have no jesus I may have no soul
In prison I hear there's time to be good
But the first thing you see is the last thing you should

Well i've seen the battle and I've seen the war
And the life in here is the life i've been told
Yeah i've seen the battle and I've seen the war
And the life out here is the life i've been sold

They say there's a passin' where all stand to judge
But the devil's a waitin' with Christ like a son
When the look comes your way best say was I
For the reasons you hold give reasons to die
The calling's impatient and cause never won
But the last one to say it may last through the flood

Well I've seen the battle and I've seen the war
And the life in here is the life I've been sold
Yeah I've seen the battle and I've seen the war
And the life out here is the life I've been told

I'm born in weary but life's just begun
And i've run from the reasons and run to the gun
They say i'm the killer and thy will be done
And the doors won't be open when I finally become

And i've seen the battle and I've seen the war
And the life out here is the life i've been sold
Yeah i've seen the battle and I've seen the war
And the life in here is the life i've been told
