You live your life in spite
From day to day
You spread your evil lies
It's always been your way

You don't care who you hurt
You don't care who you burn
The pain you put me through awaits
My every turn

Now I can see
The truth in your eyes
The filthy lies
Don't tell me lies
Don't turn your back on me

Dirty secrets never let you go
Dirty secrets never make it so
All the words you said were never true
Now your dirty secrets
Are haunting you

Let's have the truth be known
I never know what's true
You spend your every day
With nothing else to do
The lives you claim this day
Are looking for revenge
And now you'll have to pay
Until the very end
