"Someone Not Me"

Visit "Someone Not Me" on MotoLyrics.com

Reminiscing on my life
Opportunities I let pass by
Everyday that comes to pass
I'm forced to contemplate my last

Times of sorrow and of joy
A journey on life's road

Wasting my time, pretend to be
Someone, not me
Living my life, trying to please
Someone, not me

Hiding behind, a masquerade
Someone, not me
It's not who I am, apparently

Someone, not me

Acting for the public eye
Conceal my sadness with a smile
Performing for the world to see
Illusions cloud reality

All the choices, good and bad
Define the person that I am

Somehow, someday
I'll find out who I am
I'll find the strength to face each day
Eventually I'll find my way
