Words and pictures
Always on my mind
Think of these visions
All of the time

And when I am alone
I am so far away
Distant reflections of another day

It's so far away
Space and time
I have these words to say
It's no crime
Bitterness surrounds my memories
You killed the soul inside of me

Crushed beneath the weight
Of your needs
Wanted to give you more
But now I finally see

A hopeless situation
I would loose in the end
Ultimate rejection
Lost my closest friend
Why'd it have to end
