Baby please don't go(don't go)

uh uh uh uh uh (don't go) uh uh uh uh yeahx2

baby please don't go

yeah yeah come on

baby girl don't wanna let it go memories, what it was before

so strong

should have let you in

i was on the grind

doin my thing

you never know what you got til it's gone

i know should but you don't hate me

saw me and my second baby

be a soldier here for me baby

baby don't know if you can take it is this struggle over this all worth it

and you're thinkin that you heard it

heard it all before

i'm sayin

please don't go

please don't go go

don't wanna lose you

come on please dont go

baby please don't go

please don't go go

if i deserve it

imma tell my girl i've gotten used to you

girl don't know if imma make it

don't go x8

go go

didn't know if i was ready for a compromise

and the back and forth
but you know
the two of us
can't get enough
it's just so right
i know i can't afford to lose your bright smile

baby don't know i you can take it

don't know if imma make it

i can't forget that you was meant to be with me you know i'm tryin to let no one get to me like this i know i'm sprung
don't leave me in the cold you've got me trying to change my ways please don't go girl hey

said i need you in my life
oh ooooooh
baby please
