I see you on the corner,
Looking like you're looking for someone to talk to you
I'm standing just watching ,
Waiting for the time that's right for me to make my move
I'm hoping that the one you're looking for tonight
just might be me.
Wanted more than get to know ya,
No I don't just wanna hold ya close,
What I really wanna say..

[Chorus:]
I wanna be on you like rain,
All over your body.
On you like rain,
All over your body.
I want my skin on your skin,
Touching your body.
What I mean is
I wanna be all over you.
I want you all over me.
I want you however you want,
We've got the love you need.
I wanna be on you like rain.

I'm looking for the words to say,
To say exactly what you wanna hear.
I'm trying to find a way to get to you,
so I can find a way to get you near.
I'm going crazy thinking bout the things that we can do,
When I get you with me.
Wanna get more than your number
Wanna be more than your lover.
What I really wanna be..

[Chorus:]
I wanna be on you like rain,
All over your body.
On you like rain,
All over your body.

I want my skin on your skin,
Touching your body.
What I mean is
I wanna be all over you.
I want you all over me.
I want you however you want,
We've got the love you need.
I wanna be on you like rain.

I wanna be on you, all over you,
Everywhere
You'll see you'll feel how much I care.
You know nobody's gonna love you as much as me
And I want more than to take up your time,
I want more than me on your mind.
I wanna be on you like rain,
All over your body.
On you like rain,
All over your body.
I want my skin on your skin,
Touching your body.
What I mean is
I wanna be all over you.
I want you all over me.
I want you however you want,
We've got the love you need.
I wanna be on you like rain.
I want my skin on your skin,
Touching your body.
What I mean is
I wanna be all over you.
I want you all over me.
I want you however you want,
We've got the love you need.
I wanna be on you like rain.
