"Copenhagen Streetlights"

Visit "Copenhagen Streetlights" on MotoLyrics.com

Leaving on a bright new day
Searching for a place to stay
Victim of my own misfortune
Feeling low
Clinging on to what I once had
Holding on to what's over ground

Under copenhagen streetlights I can see
Under copenhagen streetlights I will be
If I don't find it again
If I don't find it again

Walking through the sewers again
Listening to the sounds above
So aloof
Punching holes alone in the air

Wishing for a soul that would pull me up again

Under copenhagen streetlights I can see
Under copenhagen streetlights I will be
If I don't find it again
If I don't find it again

Under copenhagen streetlights there's a heart
Under copenhagen streetlights we won't part
If I don't find it again
If I don't find it again
If I don't find it again
If I don't find it again
