(Male)

Once when I look and saw u standing by the subway line but if you found out it was a lie I would die to know where you lie to go oh what does it mean baby it didnt show til 8.15 and should u love another guy I would die to know where you lie to go to see him tonight

try a little luck with a sunny smile and a witty eye and you may find a smiling guy and a little air between your lips and mine oh cry almost like a baby so dont be surprise if don't find you can comply when i'm on my knees looking for recipes chorus:

So wouldn't you answer the phone and tell me you're all alone
i saw you everyday i'm begging you to don't go away

(female)

I don't even know your name couldn't call you anything should have call you baby maybe just a little grant I dont even like it when you're making all the noise for me
I don't even know your name couldn't call you anything S

(male)

Hold on you didn't tell me baby you'll be back at dawn or in the back sit out by your lawn
I would die to know where you lie to go oh no having trouble finding out which way to go i'm stuck in slow mo looking on the ground for the love i've found

chorus:

Answer the phone and tell me you're all alone
i saw you everyday i'm begging you to don't go away

(female)

I don't even know your name
couldn't call you anything
should have call you baby
maybe just a little grant
I dont even like it when you're making all the noise for
me
I don't even know your name
couldn't call you anything
