Now where would I be if I didn't have you

If I didn't have you...

Where would I go

(It's babiixjenii)

[verse one]

Remember when we met, no more than ordinary friends

Spent the late nights talking as if there were never an end

Caught myself speaking the words I never dared to speak

But with your company I felt as if I could never be weak

Knowin every night you'll be there with a whole new conversation

But the more we spoke, the more I noticed this whole new temptation

In relation to bonnie and clyde, it was you and I

Unbreakable it seems, everyday you're right here by my side

And everytime I'm stuck you always figure out the road to take

I see you in my dreams then again when I wake

Once alone with my shadow, now accompanied by a soulmate

One who is there when I fall, someone ready to hold me

Who knows me deep inside like no one else could know me

Someone I could trust, who always know the simple words to say

Everyday, every night you'll be there when I turn around

Always down with the plans we make, this is why my heart pound

Pounding every moment, knowing I won't die unloved

Appreciated by my one and only, and blessed by the lord above

To grant my wish with the ability to make it true

Thinkin' what would have happened if I never found u

And I know I've said it once, but here I say it once again

To the one who's here with me until my precious life

I could have never made it through my past filled of many sins

If you weren't here to help me purify the heart that lies within

(Purify the heart that lies within)

[chorus]

Now where would I be if I didn't have you (if I didn't have you)

If I didn't have someone to run to

Where would I go, and who will hold me

Close, at most, with affection to console me

have you)

If I didn't have someone to run to

Where would I go, and who will hold me

Close, at most, with affection to console me

[verse two]

Everyday I used to ask if there was someone made for me

If there was such a thing as fate, then how would mine turn out to be

But now I see that He's planned it so that you could come and find me

So your arms could wrap around me and live together happily

But never in my life have I had someone who could listen

Who could look into my eyes and show they care, eyes glisten

Missin' out on so much, but you've helped me fill up my gaps

Took me out to see the world when my soul was feeling trapped

And they used to think we couldn't make it, said there's nothing we could have

But now they're wrong, here we are, three years left back in the past

Shared a life alike to what a storytale once told

Endless nights of having someone I could hold

Thru my emotional moments, to the happier of times

You're the reason I'm breathing, and why I still writing my rhymes

Cuhs a pen and a paper could have never been enough

I needed you to be with me to help me regain what I used to trust

So hard to describe how I felt inside

How I felt the day you said there's no reason to cry

I lived a life full of lies from the people I cared for Forgotten from those who I was there for

So therefore, there were days when I felt like no one was around

But it was you who seemed to be there everytime I turned around

Living proof standing right in front of me

The answer to my prayers from the nights by my bedside, on my bended knees

[bridge]

Where would I be

If I didn't have you

Where would I go (where would I go)

Who would hold me close
