verse 1
my stles so cold holla for the gold some say im to drunk some say im to blowed and rollin kilos im stackin these Cnotes watchin my cheeses grow and blowin on trees though and i really can't help it im addicted to time gorilla grind and no time for groupies or free stylin want it green as a getco im respectful to some of you'll but some of you'll be frontin i don't owe shit to none of you'll i got bills to comprehend po-pos be poppin in waitin and watchin when they could take my block in im in and outta traffic supplyin they bad habbit the game is gettin graphic but main i gotta have it son of a drug addict but that aint no excuse i got these money makin skills i mma put em to use and i ain't doin to much you'll just aint doin enough and i refuse to let a so called ruin my stuff hours

verse 2

im movin aint got nothin to say cause 24 hours aint enough time in the day so time doesn't exist aint no watch on my wrist if a peck on the cheek means death watch for the kiss i stay calm under pressuse by any means or measure remember ones trash is another mans treasure bussiness b4 pleasure im disiplined and im fouced while you rap cats battle to see who dopest im in the trenches face down in the game bra and can't nobody no my real name bra livin in the seasons they killin for no reason if i make it pass 30 then im over achivin belivin in the truth belivin in the way the life that i follow might bring me a brighter day in the truth in the way the life that the life that i follow might bring me a brighter day
