(feat. Ryan Tedder of OneRepublic)

I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
Baby after all of that I don't think I'm coming back
Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?
Things ain't like they use to be baby girl you're losing
me

I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
Baby after all of that I don't think I'm coming back
Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?

Well now the thrill is long gone
The feelin is all wrong
Got me feelin uncomfortable all in my own home
And your ring tone song deleted from my phone
And danm I use to love that song when it came on

And no this ain't about no new company
It's just time for you to do you and me to do me
And you know, and you know
That I know, that I know
That we don't belong together no more

And even though the memories still make me wanna believe
The facts I gotta face em
It's over it's history
Cause you know
We gotta breath and I don't wanna deceive
A lie or get it twisted so baby I gotta leave.

I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
Baby after all of that I don't think I'm coming back
Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?
Things ain't like they use to be baby girl you're losing
me

I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
Baby after all of that I don't think I'm coming back
Tell me what would you do, you, do you do?

The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone

Well now I wish there was a way I could turn back the clock

When the loven was so hot

Good to the last drop

And I wish there was a way I could rewind the time

Wait before the tears and the years on the grind

Now you lookin at me crazy every time you hear my phone ring

Use to get along better back when we was homies

Use to keep it low key now we fight in public

Argue about anything and every single subject

So now I think it's better if we just keep it movin

I won't trip off you and you won't trip off what I'm doin

Cause baby this ain't crackin like it use to be

I think you just got a little use to me

I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to

I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to

Baby after all of that I don't think I'm coming back

Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?

Things ain't like they use to be baby girl you're losing
me

I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to

Baby after all of that I don't think I'm coming back

Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?

The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone, the thrill is gone

The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone, the thrill is gone

The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone

Well now I wish there was a way I could turn back the

When the loven was so hot

Good to the last drop

And I wish there was a way I could rewind the time

Wait before the tears and the years on the grind

I don't wanna say it but you know what I'm thinking

And we should be apart

Now it's over like a holiday

I don't wanna say it but you know what I'm thinking

And we should be apart

Now it's over

I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
Baby after all of that I don't think I'm coming back
Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?
Things ain't like they use to be baby girl you're losing
me
I wish it could be like it use to, use to, use to
Baby after all of that I don't think I'm coming back
Tell me what would you do, you do, you do?

The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone, the thrill is gone
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone, the thrill is gone,
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone, the thrill is gone,
The thrill is gone, the thrill is gone, the thrill is gone,
The thrill is gone
