Written by babyface, jonathan buck (1996) Performed by toni braxton
Always thought your promise was for life I did not think that I would hear you say good-bye
And I always heard you led another life I doubted every time I guess every time? cause in my eyes
Love was always something magical But the feeling is so tragic for
And all I know is in love The thing that I want most I can't possess
There's only emptiness In the late of night
Just before I closed my eyes You lied As you kissed me goodnight
In the late of night Just before I closed my eyes I cried
As you kissed my lips good-bye In my eyes You will always be the lucky one? cause you know you?
I'll always have my love For all time until I die
Through the end I gave to you my best You gave, you gave me loneliness
