Talk about the love you're missing
Maybe then it's true when they say love is blind
I can help you if you listen
I can make you feel good if you just let me try
If everlasting love is what you're waiting for
Then that time for you just has arrived
So here I am come walk right thru my door
And be loved for the rest of your life
If you talk about good loving
Let's talk about the lover in me (shoo do op)
So don't go talk about no other
Just talk about the lover in me (shoo do op)
I can give you all the loving
But I gotta know that you're there to receive
I can be your only woman
But I gotta feel that I'm all that you need
I'll be your everything
I can give you so much more
And I'll never leave you lonely at night
So here I am come walk right through my door
And be loved for the rest of your life
Hook 2 times
Now if you talk about and dream about and think about your lover
Don't talk about or dream about or think about no other
Don't run around all over town searching for some other
The love we found won't let us down, let's talk about the lover
I'll be your everything
I can give you so much more
And I'll never leave you lonely at night
So here I am come walk right through my door
And be loved for the rest of your life
Hook
If you talk about and dream about and think about your lover
Don't talk about or think about or dream about no other
Don't run around all over town just searching for some other
The love we found won't let us down, let's talk about the lover
Hook 2 times
