I wish it would just end like this,
I wish it would just be forgotten like this,
Like last night's dream, with a sweet dream
Will I forget after I cry like this?
Will I forget after I hate like this?
So you cannot live in my heart...

I don't know, my tears just keep flowing
I can't live without a moment forgetting you
What do I do? I love you too much
So I can love the goodbye too,
Smiling, wishing that you would be happy, I let you go

I think my love is not enough
Inside my tear-mixed heart,
I want you to have bad luck and look for me (What, what do I do?) The tears just keep flowing (What, what do I do?) My heart hurts... so much

I wish there was no today, I was tomorrow would never come
So I can think of you and fall asleep, like yesterday
I'm scared of today passing, I'm scared of tomorrow coming
Because I will fall asleep in my tears of longing
