Last Song

Written by Babyface(1997 from the album reUNION)

Performed by Deliverance

Verse 1

When I think of special thoughts
I remember special feelings we shared
And when I think of special moments
Those were special times you told me you cared

B-section 1

When autumn comes the leaves will flow away
But I know right now Your love will always stay, oh
I know You will love me forever, hey
Don't You know Your love can't get any better, no, oh

Chorus

Last song forever
I couldn't love You no better
Than I do right now
And now means forever

Verse 2

And when I think of how I truly feel
One day we'll be together always
Though time has changed so many, many things Through it all, through it all our love has remained the same

B-section 2

Winter snow will bring us back the cold for sure

Through it all our love, our love will endure
I know You will love me forever
I said don't You know our love can't get
No better, no better, no better, no, no

Chorusx2

Spoken

Now Lord if this were my last song
And these lips could no longer tell you how I feel
My prayer is that this song will forever
Be remembered in the depths of your infinite mind
This song, our last song, forever

B-section 2

Winter snow will bring back the cold for sure
Through it all our love will always endure

I know You will love me forever, yeah
Don't You know our love can't get no better
Chorus
Fade
