"Crack Of Dawn"

How much can you take before you lose your mind how long can you stand being kicked from behind everything I do, all I say seems to be declined

My life seems to decay tomorrow's a brand new day

At the crack of dawn
I hope all my troubles are gone crack of dawn, at the crack of dawn it just goes on and on, crack of dawn

You try to hold back but you're in need of that bone harder to breath and you sink like a stone facing the fact seems like I'm at my best alone

My life seems to decay
tomorrow's a brand new day

At the crack of dawn
I hope all my troubles are gone
crack of dawn, at the crack of dawn
it just goes on and on, crack of dawn

At the crack of dawn
I hope all my troubles are gone
crack of dawn, at the crack of dawn
it just goes on and on, crack of dawn
