What's that song we use to sing?
It's about anything, everything and anything
What's that song we use to sing?
You have always thinking of her
You're in love and you don't know what to say
But I saw her at the fair
And she feels the same way
She was married by the merry-go-round

The merry-go-round
The merry-go-round
Merrily we go round

It was the first one of the day
It was the last one of the night
Oh hold me tight, hold me tight, hold me tight now

It was the first one of the day
It was the last one of the night
Oh hold me tight, hold me tight, hold me tight now

There's a parade of girls outside
That boy's so shy, why'd you punch out his lights?

They said you were wrongened
But I can see in your eyes
How you are gentle and wise
And you had the good stuff

There's a parade of girls outside
That boy's so shy, why'd you punch out his lights?

What was that song you used to sing?
What was that song we used to sing?

What was that song you used to sing?
What was that song we used to sing?
Sing that song we used to sing

What was that song you used to sing?
It's about anything and everything
Everything and anything

The times of your life, the people that we meet

It was the first one of the day
It was the last one of the night
It was the first one of the day
It was the last one of the night
Oh hold me tight, hold me tight, hold me tight now

There's a parade of girls outside
That boy's so shy, why'd you punch out his lights?

You have always thinking of her
You're in love and you don't know what to say
But I saw her at the fair
And she feels the same way
She was married by the merry-go-round

The merry-go-round
The merry-go-round
Merrily we go round
