Lost one friend
And another
Lost my way
And a lover
But you never
Could believe me
At all

What's the thought
That'll change your way
Did you think
You could break me
Guess your pieces
Didn't shake me
After all

Yeah but how do you sleep
Through the night
It's so sad
And she says
These are the things that aren't right
In your head
So I'm like
Could you describe
Me in your eyes
Knowing you
Must suffer to

So what's with love
Means attention
What's with lost
Has direction
What's with hoping
You ain't begging
To the weak
Yeah

What's with faith
And redemption
What's with trust
In projection

What's with feeling
A mess
That I seek
Tell me now

So how do you sleep
Through the night
It's so sad
And she says
These are the things that aren't right
In your head
So I'm like
Could you describe
Me in your eyes
Knowing you
Must suffer to Survive

Baby when you feel the hurt
You knew I won't get it up
Maybe there's another life
That took you away
Life is like a whole new crag
You tell me somethin' see me cry
But please no more pictures
Today

So how do you sleep
Through the night
It's so sad
And she says
These are the things that aren't right
In your head
So I'm like
Could you describe
Me in your eyes
Knowing you
Must suffer to
I really do

How do you sleep
Through the night
It's so sad
And she says
These are the things that aren't right
In your head
So I'm like
Could you describe
To me in your eyes
Knowing you
Must suffer to

Survive
