I wanna know can we spend this life together
Be a shield from rain and weather
Tell me can I, baby, tell me can I be your man?

Let's be lovers, girl I promise to be faithful
True and honest forever, I know you been hurt
But you really need to give us a chance

You need love
Please don't change the way you are
Soon you'll live within my heart
You deserve it, you know it
You've been searching for it all of your life

You need love
Don't be scared to try again
You can rest upon a chance
And I'll hold you, I'll save you
You've been searching for it all of your life
You need love

I need to know can I be the one you trust
Be your friend I'll give you all, all of the things you dream of
Tell me can I be your man

Hole in your heart, there's a wound I wanna heal
If you're willing I'll be here, here to fix the broken
Let me change the life you live

You need love
Please don't change the way you are
Soon you'll live within my heart
You deserve it, you know it
You've been searching for it all of your life

You need love
Don't be scared to try again
You can rest upon a chance
And I'll hold you, I'll save you
You've been searching for it all of your life
You need love

You've been searching for it all of your life, yeah
You've been searching for it all of your life
You need love, you need love
Don't change the way you are
You need love
Searching for it all of your life

You need love
Please don't change the way you are
Soon you'll live within my heart
You deserve it, you know it
You've been searching for it all of your life

You need love
Don't be scared to try again
You can rest upon a chance
And I'll hold you, I'll save you
You've been searching for it all of your life

You need love
Please don't change the way you are
Soon you'll live within my heart
You deserve it, you know it
You've been searching for it all of your life

You need love
Don't be scared to try again
You can rest upon a chance
And I'll hold you, I'll save you
You've been searching for it all of your life
You need love
