Oh yeah

7 am, thinking 'bout you
Wondering
If the thoughts I'm feeling
You're feeling too

Like a new born child
Soft to the touch
Baby is it possible
To love someone so much

I wish I may
I wish I might
Be that certain someone
You wish for every night

If you knew what I knew
You wouldn't say what you said
(Say what you said)
If you knew what I knew
We'd be together instead
(Together instead)

Of you breaking my heart
(Breaking my heart)
Over things that aren't true
My lady, yes, my lady
(My lady)
If you knew what I knew

Time passes by
The only tears I cry
Are filled with disillusion
And fears I have inside

Like a lost soul
I feel like I'm all alone
(All alone)
If only I could feel your pain
Within your heart of stone, woh oh

I wish I may
I wish I might
Be that certain someone
You wish for every night

If you knew what I knew
You wouldn't say what you said
(Say what you said)
If you knew what I knew
We'd be together instead
(Together instead)

Of you breaking my heart
(Breaking my heart)
Over things that aren't true
My lady, yes, my lady

If you knew what I knew
Then you wouldn't have to go away
If you knew what I knew
Then you would be here to stay
Right by my side always (Always)

If you knew what I knew
You wouldn't say what you said
(Say what you said)
If you knew what I knew
We'd be together instead

Of you breaking my heart
(Breaking my heart)
Over things that aren't true
My lady, yes, my lady
(My lady)

If you knew what I knew, my, baby
You would have never have said what you said
If you knew what I knew, my, baby
We would be together instead

If you knew what I knew, my, baby
You would have never have said what you said
If you knew what I knew, my, baby
We would be together instead

Girl if you knew
(Say what you said)
If only you knew, my baby
We would be together instead

(Girl if you knew)
If you knew what I knew, my baby
(You know you will always)
You would have never have said what you said
If you knew what I knew, my baby
We would be together instead

(Girl if you you knew)
If you knew what I knew, my baby
(Say what you said)
You would have never have said what you said
If you knew what I knew, my baby
We would be together instead

(Girl if you you knew)
If you knew what I knew, my baby
(Say what you said)
You would have never have said what you said
If you knew what I knew, my baby
We would be together instead
