Only one life to live in Trying our best to make it through Ooooh we're trying our best to make it through
There's no mistakes, just lessons
It's all about what they mean to you

No matter what you've gone through (you can)
Pick up the pieces, move on with your life
'Cause we have to
Accept the wrongs and try to make them right
It may be hard to
Look at yourself and see the truth
Baby you've got to Realize it takes time to become you
So just get to

Chorus:
Moving on
We're moving on
We're moving on
Living day by day, everything must change
But in a way everything stays the same
Moving on, moving on, moving on, moving on
Moving on

Well take what you've been given
Gotta take a chance while we can
To find our place in our world
We gotta understand the plan (understand)

Ohh just put the past behind you
Pick up the pieces, move on with your life
'Cause we have to
Accept the wrongs and try to make them right
Ohhh you can
Look at yourself and see the truth
Ohh ohh realize it takes time to become you
Oh just get to..

(Repeat chorus)

We know we've changed
But we're still the same
Getting closer to what we're supposed to be
As life goes on you'll have your time
'Cause everything's meant to be

Moving on, moving on
Everything must change
While we're still the same

(Repeat chorus)

Moving on, moving on
Everything must change
While we're still the same...
