There's me, looking down at my shoes
The one smiling like the sun, that's you
What were you thinking?
What was the song inside your head?

There's us, going on about a band
Working out how we play our hands
I lay there dreaming, later all alone in my bed
If I were stupid, maybe careless
So were you

Not everything is suppose to come true
Some words are best unsaid
Some love is not really love at all
I'll keep everything we shared with you
And that's enough
There's Us

Freeze frame, I'm not about to cry
It's to late for us to change, why try
I've got a camera tucked away inside my heart
If I'm a loser, or just unlucky, so are you

Not everything is suppose to come true
Some words are best unsaid
Some love is not really love at all

I'll keep everything we shared with you
And that's enough
There's Us

Somewhere between then and now
I looked away, when you said we'll never change
And if you think what might have been
You'll lose today, we got songs to play

Not everything is suppose to come true
Some words are best unsaid
Some love is not really love at all
I'll keep everything we shared with you
And that's enough
And that's enough

And that's enough
There's us

Not everything is suppose to come true
Some words are best unsaid
Some love is not really love at all
I'll keep everything we shared with you
And that's enough
There's us
Not really love at all
There's us
Some love is not really
Love at all
There's us
