Your words burn, they're melting
What we have, I'm breaking down
No reason, no warning, no love lost
You might as well

Take our pictures off the walls tonight
I don't wanna see you no more
I don't wanna feel you no more
Take our memories, throw 'em all aside
I hope you finally get what you want, now you know

I didn't wanna live without ya
I didn't wanna love without ya
I used to think I'd die without ya
Now it's killing me that we can be undone

I can't feel without ya
You know I can't deal without ya
And now I got a life without ya
Now it's killing me that we can be undone

And this constant echoing
In my head, I'm spinning round
You seem so unaffected
While I go on in this hell

Take our pictures off the walls tonight
I don't wanna see you no more
I don't wanna feel you no more
Take our memories, throw 'em all aside
I hope you finally get what you want, now you know

I didn't wanna live without ya
I didn't wanna love without ya
I used to think I'd die without ya
Now it's killing me that we can be undone

I can't feel without ya
You know I can't deal without ya
And now I got a life without ya
And it's killing me that we can be undone
We could be undone

You're talking now
And I'm hearin' everything that you say
And I'm holding on is a real phrase
And it's dragging me along to my grave

You're talking now
And I'm hearin' everything that you say
And I'm holding on is a real phrase
And it's dragging me along to my grave

I didn't wanna live without ya
I didn't wanna love without ya
I used to think I'd die without ya
Now it's killing me that we can be undone

I can't feel without you
You know I can't deal without you
And now I got a life without you
And it's killing me that we can be undone

Love with ya
I used to think I'd die without ya
Now it's killing me, we can be undone

I can't feel without you
You know I can't deal without you
And now I got a life without you
And it's killing me, we can be undone
