"There's a prayer covering the silence in my room.
No I don't want to wake up as myself.
And I went from Gothenburg to Stockholm
Just too see if heavens guarantee included me.
And I'm still standing on the subway train,
While your in spain.
It's a midnight prayer for my days to come
Got a napalm heart forever.
It's a midnight prayer for my days to come
Got a napalm heart forever.
There's prayer covering the silence in my room.
No I don't want to wake up as myself.
"But my boyfriend he's an artist he is weak."
Yeah you deserve each other, go to hell.
And I'm still standing on the subway train.
There is a landslide coming through the morning mist.
Cause I still love you.
It's a midnight prayer cause I love you so.
Got a napalm heart forever.
It's a midnight prayer cause I love you so.
Got a napalm heart forever.
(Been to church with all my longing.)
Cause I'm still standing on the subway train.
(Been to church with my longing.)
Yeah I'm still standing on the subway train.
It's a midnight prayer cause Ilove you so.
Got a napalm heart forever.
It's a midnight prayer cause I love you so.
Got a napalm heart forever."
