I take my hands from all the things now
I just let them move beside me
I don't let them bother me no more.
Another day comes scarily close to Nearly be the day that
Nearly be the day
That leads the way..
Somethings got to start me up
So come on come on
Please shake me
Something's got to make me move
Come on come on please shake me
Something's got to make me move
I take my hands from all the things now
I just let them move beside me
I don't let them bother me no more.
And I used to think about them
Those who never worry
Bur now I think about myself again
Yeah something's got to start me up
Something's got to make me move
So come on come on
Please shake me
Something's got to make me move
Come on come on please shake me
Something's got to make me move
And I am much too bored to die
I am much too borde to die
I am much too borde to
Much too borde to
Much too borde to die
So come on come on
Please shake me
Something's got to make me move
Come on come on please shake me
Something's got to make me move
Something's got to start me up
Something's got to make me move
So come on come on
Please shake me something's got to make me move
Come on
(come on!)

Come on
(come on!)
And I am much too bored to die
I am much too borde to die
I am much too borde to
Much too borde to
Much too borde to die
