I'll look into the sun, just so I can shine
If that's what it takes
And just for once in life
I'll go out with a smile
And choose the one that I can't have
And my baby says
I wanna be with you always
Then my baby laughs
Cause she knows nothing's forever
But I can't see that
Don't say that I'm wrong
I just follow everyone who can give me shelter
And just before it dawns
I let the curtains fall
No I can't take the lies today
And my baby says
I wanna be with you always
Then my baby laughs
Cause she knows nothing's forever
But I can't see that
And you, you are my Valentine in the back of my mind
You, you are my valentine in the back of my mind
And you, you are my Valentine in the back of my mind
