I won't kneel down
Before anyone
A country full of fucking pricks
Is what this has become

Set us up for failure
And force us to believe
But all that we can count on
Is that we'll be deceived

You might have a president
But I won't be controlled by a fucking prick
You might have faith in the system
Well politics just make me sick

I won't kneel down
Before anyone
A country full of fucking pricks
Is what this has become

Set us up for failure
And force us to believe
But all that we can count on
Is that we'll be deceived

You might not listen
To a word that they fucking say
So then the power's given blindly
To the assholes of today

No one thinks this situation
Is getting out of hand
If no one is taking a look around
Then who the fuck will understand?

By the time that we react
It'll soon be too late
Gotta rise above what they create, we
Gotta bring down the state

We gotta bring down the state
We gotta bring down the state

I won't kneel down
Before anyone
A country full of fucking pricks
Is what this has become

Set us up for failure
And force us to believe
But all that we can count on
Is that we'll be deceived
