I can see it in the look in your eyes
No need to hide or tell me lies
'Cos Iâve been heading for another heart break
Iâm leaving for loveâs sake
I pretend that I could just walk away
Thereâs no chance to try to make me stay
Iâve been saving what Iâm feeling inside
Itâs too late, our love died
I just canât tell you goodbye
Thereâs so many reasons why
Let me tell you 'bout the things Iâve been through
I could never live my life without you
Let me tell you 'cos I need to let you know
How could I ever leave you
I tell you I can be the one for you baby
Still hold on to love like I never do
Going out of my head are the words that you said
To me
See you smile in the Summer rain
No more tears and no more pain
Caught in between whatâs right and whatâs wrong
Iâve waited for so long
I just canât tell you goodbye...
Let me tell you 'bout the things Iâve been through...
I could never leave you alone
Could never make it alone
A love that Iâve never known
I just canât tell you goodbye
Let me tell you 'bout the things Iâve been through...
Let me tell you I love you
