now a lot of cats look at me to bring it back but I'm moving forward and I'm more than just a single track and I ain't a little dance to go with it they say it ain't what it used to be, no kidding I ain't tryin to chart if it means sacrificing the art see I knew this would happen right from the start so I'm writing, right from my heart see I am not an actor, I'm writing the parts I am the light in the dark a rebel for the people taking back what's rightfully ours you led me to believe that I had nothing left at all so I am now deaf to y'all and I don't even know how yall got left in charge the game's been transformed by decepticons but you know what? give em my best regards I'ma get this to the people no extra charge

CHORUS:

I can't hear you, whatcha say now why don't you just, put the mic down if you ain't got it, then you won't get it but wait a minute, wait a minute now oh you thought you was sayin something?
uh-uh dawg you ain't sayin nothing uh-uh I ain't hearin any substance uh-uh kid you ain't sayin nothing I let em know what I ride for anything other than that I ain't got time for cause this is what I'm still alive for this is real this is something I would die for I talk about it so I gotta be about it I can't see without it when I'm penning a verse to make it matter and still finish below budget if this ain't the real thing, yo I don't know what is it's easy, just hit em with the slow stutter I, I, I and instantly the flows butter get a mil off of that well no wonder leave it to hip hop, there is no other and it's the same cats who are tired of hearing the same thing that wanna bring it back now think about that, but they can all keep complaining while I keep breaking ground and usher a new game in

CHORUS:

I can't hear you, whatcha say now
oh you thought you was sayin something?
