CHORUS:

step, step, we part, we meet head down to the ground as I move my feet sidewalkin, I weave through the people ain't got the time for a nice to meet you
I feel the energy between us but you're out of my reach sidewalkin, I never look you in the eyes only worry bout myself so I walk to the side headphones on, ipod in my palm lace my new kicks and I'm gone I'm right where I belong so I'm calm that last thing I need is a need for alarm, so I keep moving on I got it going on, feeling good, feeling right fresh to death yes all my gear lookin' tight so I stay out of sight, out of eye contact cause why look at me when you can look at all that I stop by the main strip, cop what I need or at least what I need to make me feel complete make me feel fulfilled, I'm lost in my thoughts I pay the cost, unaware of the major loss but I keep walkin, to the side as I glide pickin' up my stride with nobody as my guide tryin' not to collide with the passer-by's so if I walk right by you, don't act surprised

CHORUS:

head down to the ground as I move my feet
ain't got the time for a nice to meet you
I feel the energy between us but you're out of my reach

I keep on sidewalkin' like I'm in a rush maneuvering and staying out of touch but just as I turn the corner this guy surprised me told me to hold up, thought he recognized me

I feel like I know him, feel like I've seen him around and I ain't ever sidewalked to this part of town he told me he could see me and that he knew me well it wasn't hard to tell that this guy could use some help

I said look I don't know you, I don't really care what you go through, I ain't gotta do nothin' for you
I didn't approach you, I don't do that I don't owe you, look I'm sidewalkin' on my own two
...he just stood there and smiled, looked me in my eyes like he could see past my disguise so why was I still trying to hide the only thing I knew how to do was turn to the side

CHORUS:

ain't got the time for a nice to meet you
I feel the energy between us but you're out of my reach

streets is dangerous, so I stay on the sidewalk where I got my own space outlined in chalk but that'll fade away with just a little rain a temporary drug for the pain side effects including losing identity short-term serenity prescribed by the enemy I can't deal with anything after this moment in time this remedy ain't everything I was hoping to find I sidewalk with a mask on, but what for when I've been designed to do so much more I know it when I write to the beat the fact that I'm still on my feet makes my cypher complete whether cruisin', or walking, man I'm never losing I want you to see me let there be no confusion if walkin' on this side means I cant be human ...then I best keep moving

CHORUS:

head down to the ground as I move my feet
ain't got the time for a nice to meet you
I feel the energy between us but you're out of my reach
