sister, I don't want you to be my fan I'd rather have you be my number one collaborator I'm right here and you're still tryin to get ahold of me I know you're made of a lot more than what your showing me
so sister let me ask you a question right now, how do you want to be mentioned what do u want people to know you as trendy orthodox or an agent of change ya wanna look real cute in those photographs or would you rather start changing the frame a handmaiden paving the way for the future generations of women to follow and get used to plain to see you're not who claim to be n if thats who you aim to be, you've lost me call it a tragedy, countless casualties made for change but lost their agency

CHORUS:

Sister there's no need for this pretending
I See whats inside of you come on lets keep it true
Sister there's no need for this pretending
you can trust in me
just keep it real with me sister I need you to let down your guard cause right now I have no idea who you are I know your hurt, I can see through to the pain I'm not here with you just to be entertained look, don't let the guys mess around with ur status and never let ya girls just keep you distracted providing a sex & the city guide to life that kind of life buying into what they call pretty compliments on ya face and dress and you give em back to just enhance the materialism don't let a magazine make a list for you to follow outer perfection but you still feel hollow swear that which you do is just something for you and its not you, means you got something to prove please do not try to fool me cause behind that camouflage I can still see you truly

BRIDGE:

Ohhh...

you know you can keep your guard down

I got your back

Ohhh...

you know you can trust in me

Ohhh...

marriage ain't gonna make u who you're meant to be unless you've investigated your own integrity your not up for bids, and this ain't a market stop selling urself, try telling yourself this that you are not in anyway half made you can embrace the whole, never downgrade cause I can't see you sister, with ya face to make up for the space in the real that you fail to take up listen, you dont need that kind of attention
-what I can see is that you need a retention of your true design, your boldest intentions that which some of ya friends have failed to mention and please don't forget that I am your brother and what I'm trying to do is help lead you to discover the nobility that exists in both of us but first what I need from you is Trust

CHORUS:
