badi get a grip... don't let em see you like this I say I'm ashamed of mankind but I walk a thin line so I slip, if somethings in the way yea I'm known to trip it's just more than I can take all eyes on me, and its more than I can fake but at the end of the day, man all that I can say is my prayers to the Most Great when I'm down for the count, in it too deep when I live day to day, start to lose sleep when I don't go to class, when I don't call fam back how long can I do this, how long will I last I don't know God, I don't know if I am even worthy of your grace anymore I'm waiting for a sign, but everything is sign in reality the world is already mine

CHORUS:

I feel it my veins
the Fire, when I cry out His Name Oh my god, make my prayer a fire to burn away all my veils make of my prayer a fire kindle in my veins a fire
My God, My Adored One
My King, My Desire

I know that God gave each a purpose but we all gotta search way beneath the surface To find it, like trying to unearth a diamond That always appears with the most perfect timing -so I start reading to find meaning-and I see there is still something I am not seeing in between the lines, In my spirit in the music, in the very air that I'm breathing it's the reason I feel forced to write I recognize it inside me, that source of light showing me there is so much more to life arming me with the fire, because I got wars to fight I think about the breakers of the dawn and how they stood firm when the guns were drawn on the front lines far from pawns kings in their own right, their the ones who I call upon whenever I lose faith I read the story of my name and realize it's never too late to believe and so shall my powers be I believed, and He made a man out of me

CHORUS:

I feel it my veins
the Fire, when I cry out His Name
Oh my god, make my prayer
a fire to burn away all my veils
My God, My Adored One
My King, My Desire

Now when the swords flash, go forward when the shafts fly, press onward
Now when the swords flash, go forward
when the shafts fly, press onward
when the swords flash, go forward
when the shafts fly, press onward
when the swords flash, go forward
when the shafts fly, press onward
