When I go I'm gonna take this wave off into the sunset When I get there man, I'll never get wet Gonna step right off into / into the other side And then I'm gonna take in and then I'm gonna make it in Gonna take this time gonna take it all to Find my mom / gonna find out how she's been / And tell her how much (how much) I've missed her since she's gone

I'm gonna take this wave / Man I hope they're waiting there
With open arms, and a case of beer But first I'm gonna shake hand of everyone before me Everyone I've ever known, Everyone I've ever met.

take your time / Face it all some day Your another player in this life and man you've got to play
can't just sit there waiting for life to pass you by (gotta) gotta catch it from behind /and take/ it for a ride

Oh...you've got to live your life you've got to make it count
before your time

Before I go I'm gonna need some time to say goodbye to all of my family and friends, cuz i'm just parts of them and all the shit i've picked up / from each one of them and every thing I've given back / and all the times I got off track give my shit / gonna give it all to someone who / ain't got no-thing And maybe they'll have better luck making something better of themselves

I'm gonna find some kid / who's wants the music in his sole and give him all my guitars / cuz I don't need them no more where i'm headed / and man I think you get it Cuz I'm never coming back, and I'm never headed back

take your time / Face it all some day Your another player in this life and man you've got to
play
can't just sit there waiting for life to pass you by (gotta)
gotta catch it from behind /and take/ it for a ride

you've got to make it count
before your time

The video games / The TV & the movies Waisting all you time / The pop-op ads are useless Useless time spent / The useless times are fruitless Poinless times / A waist of life / It's not too late to change your life

Oh...you've got to live your life
you've got to make it count
before your time
