Ya gotta take the time to look, took another look to find the one you need They Finally found a chance to ground, ground themselves around, around the ones they need

I've seen that look in their eyes and the fires,
the desires if you try and it's unmistakable
They got the love and it's right on this time,
if you look you will find it's unmistakable Ya gotta take the time to look, took another look to find the one you need

I think you've seen the two i mean, i mean that's the reason why, we're all here

To join their two lonely soles, patchin' up all the holes when it's cold and it seems crystal clear

I've seen that look in their eyes and the fires,
the desires if you try and it's unmistakable
They got the love and it's right on this time,
if you look you will find it's unmistakable
I think you've seen the two i mean, i mean that's the reason why, we're all here
